Form 990 - Organization's Mission

Phamaly Theatre Company's mission is to be a creative home for theatre artists with disabilities; to model a disability-affirmative theatrical process; and to upend conventional narratives by transforming individuals, audiences, and the world.

Form 990 - Additional Information

The financial impact and uncertainty of COVID-19 continues to be significant. The Organization has been working diligently, adjusting its programming to create community for its artists and stakeholders in the safest way possible while seeking and maximizing any and all funding opportunities. The Organization has intentionally worked to provide opportunities for theatre artists living with disabilities to connect and develop their craft as the pandemic has continued far longer than foreseen.

By eliminating all non-essential expenses and working to secure alternative funding, the Organization continues to be financially stable. In addition, prior to the pandemic, the Organization's leadership and staff made significant progress toward organizational sustainability. This work has allowed the Organization to move forward as financial losses were incurred due to cancelled or delayed programming. However, the Organization's sustainability is now much more fragile due to the realized and anticipated losses, making the support through philanthropic programs more important than ever.
